CITY OF BOSTON
THOMAS M. MENINO
MAYOR

September, 2005

Dear Friends,

The success of our city depends on the vitality of our businesses. For more than 375 years, the City of Boston has flourished because of the strengths of its diverse businesses. Back Streets businesses employ over 100,000 city residents and account for one in five jobs.

To highlight the many fine businesses in the City, we compiled a directory dedicated to industrial and commercial businesses available in both print and online at www.bostonbackstreets.com. It will serve as a bridge between businesses and will enable each of you to work with one another to keep our dollars in the city.

Through the use of this Back Streets Business to Business directory, you will be supporting one of your own, a Boston business. I urge you to consider patronizing a fellow Back Streets business the next time you need to ship your products, buy raw materials, or conduct any other commerce. Together, we can continue to move our great city forward.

Best Wishes,

Thomas M. Menino
Mayor
